cove noted. Cash wheat was firm and c. hisher. Corn-Prading in corn was at a higher inge of prices, though the advance was at enough to arouse enthusiagm or cause ausual activity. The strength which rimited of the advance was attributed improvement in wheat and to light ceipts of corn. May corn opened at along, advanced to 290c., closing at 294c., c. higher than yesterday. Cash corn as firm.

Outs derived benefit from the upward evement of the other grains. The nount of business, whilst probably a the better than has been noted lately, as, however, considerably short of fair, ay outs closed 3/3% le. higher than yesterday. Cash outs were firm and fully higher.

terday Cash oats were firm and fully be higher.

Provisions-Product closed at about the same prices as ruled at the opening, although there was an advance in the interior. The hog market was down this morning and provisions responded at the start. The strength of wheat was considered encouraging, however, and the scalpers bought but offerings became too free for the advance to be maintained, and at the close the feeling was scarcely steady, at a complete loss of the early appreciation. At the close May pork was a shade bigher than yesterday, May lard and ribs unchanged.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET.

THE IRON MARKET.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 5.—The Iron Trade Review says: The Pittsburg and Valley markets for bessemer show that furnaces are taking more part in the selling each week. Some metal has been taken for the first quarter of 18-8 at $13 in the Valley, and spot sales continue to be made in a small way at from $12 to $12.25.

Billets are weaker and in speculative sales have not preserved in a $5 margin over bessemer.

At Pittsburg $18.60 mill price, with $17.50 as the Wheeling basis.

Foundry iron shows more signs of weakness than at any time since the halt in buying. Leading southern produces are holding to quotations, and the large-est interest has ten weeks of orders on its books; but there is cutting by furnaces started up since the summer, and with these the price is off about 50c. a ton.

Talk of a combination among Valley makers of pig iron has caused some comment in Pittsburg, but it is not believed that an agreement to limit production can be made effective at this time.

A FIGHT OVER MAJOR LYNN.

His Efficiency is Questioned by Mr. E. W. Saunders, Representing His Opponent, Mr. Helm-Speaker Ryan Ably Defends Him and He is Nominated by Acelamation - Caucus Otherwise Harmonious.

both branches of the General Assembly, held last night in the hall of the House of Delegates for the purpose of nominating State offiers, was, with one exception, a very harmonious one, and the business was quickly dispatched. All of the old officers were elected, namely:

Joseph T. Lawless, Secretary of the Commonweaith; Morton Marye, Auditor of Public Accounts; Josiah Ryland, Jr., Second Auditor; A. W. Harmon, Treasurer. Sydney P. Epes, Register of the Land Office; James C. Hill, Rallroad, Commissioner; J. H. O'Bannon, Superintendent of Public Printing, and B. W. Lynn, Superintendent of the Penitentary, as there was no opposing canadiate for any other office. Colonel William T. Robins, who had announced himself a canadiate for the position of Secretary of the Commonweaith, yesternay morning retired from the field.

The whole light over the Superintendent of the Penitentary, as there was no opposing canadiate for any other office. Colonel William T. Robins, who had announced himself a canadiate for the position of Secretary of the Commonweaith, yesternay morning retired from the field.

The whole light over the Superintendent of the Penitentary was caused by the motion of Mr. E. W. Saunders, of Franklin, who represented Mr. Hieling Major Lynn's speaker Ryan taking Major Lynn's side warminy, and stating at nearth his vailuble sativices to the State, while, on the other hand, Mr. Saunders did not seem to be impressed with Major Lynn's sole warming, and summer and coloned will not be serviced to the printing state of the return Mr. and handson pointendent of the Penitentary was caused by the motion of Mr. E. All of the fight was made, however before nominations were reached, for when Major Lynn's name was presented by Mr. Ryan he was manimously chosen. The nominating speeches were full of the State.

NOMINEES CONGRATULATED.

Most of the nominees were waiting in the rotunda, and when the caucus adjourned they were surrounded by their friends and heartily congratulated.

The joint caucus of the two houses of the General Assembly was called to order at 8:10 o'clock last night by Senator William Lovenstein, who, in a' few well-chosen words, bade the members welcome to Richmond. He then announced that nominations were in order for chairman of the caucus.

In an eloquent speech, Mr. Willard placed in nominations between the Margine of the caucus.

In an eloquent speech, Mr. Willard placed in nomination Representative Merritt T. Cooke, of Nortols, who was unanimously chosen, and was escorted to his seat amid loud applause.

For secretary of the caucus Senator William Lovenstein was nominated by Senator Mellwaine, and unanimously elected, and accepted the position in an appropriate speech.

The Sergeants-ai-Arms of the Senate and House were chosen to preserve order during the sitting of the caucus.

All preliminaries having been settled the caucus proceeded to the nomination of State officers.

FIGHT ON MAJOR LYNN.

Mr. E. W. Saunders, of Franklin, opened the proceedings by an energetic speech, in which he advocated and urged that the election of Superintendent of the Penitentiary be postponed. He represented he said, the opponent of Major Lynn, and he did not think it fair that there should be any haste in holding the caucus. The caucus had not been held on account of any unanimous call from the members of both houses, no call had been circulated, and he did not think it fair. He, therefore, moved that the election of Superintendent of the Penitentiary be postponed.

In answer to this, Speaker Ryan made quite a lengthy speech, in which he said unit a lengthy speech, in which he said unit a lengthy speech, in which he said unit a lengthy speech, in which he said NOMINEES CONGRATULATED.

In answer to this, Speaker Ryan made quite a lengthy speech, in which he said that he was surprised at the remarks made by the member from Franklin. He was willing, he said, to postpone the caucus for one day, one week, or one month, if any good reason could be presented therefor. Mr. Ryan then went on to culogize Major Lynn, saying that he could see no reason for turning him down, as he had faithfully done his food, $2.50.

to eulogize Major Lynn, saying that he could see no reason for turning him down, as he had faithfully done his duty.

Senator Tredway spoke in favor of postponement. He said that Mr. Saunders of Franklin, had only just arrived, and he thought he should be given time to present the claims of Mr. Helm, whom he represented.

The matter was discussed at length on hoth sides, many members taking part. Mr. Saunders spoke again at some length, saying that he was not here to make any attack upon Major Lynn, but as to his manning the pentientiary any better than his predecessors, he did take issue with it; that he had merely carried out suggestions, and had not been an originator of any of the measures which had resulted in the good of the pentientiary. The suggestions he alluded to, he said, had come from Governor McKinney's message to the Legislature.

He only wished a delay of a few days. Mr. T. C. Pitcher asked Mr. Saunders if he could give any specific russon why Major Lynn should not be retained in his office, to which Mr. Saunders repiled by asking if Mr. Filcher could give any reasons why he should he retained. Mr. Pilcher replied that he could, to which Mr. Saunders repiled that for every reason siven ip Major Lynn's favor he could produce one against him.

Upon request of Speaker Ryan the secretary read the report of the Board of Directors of the penitentiary, showing the yearly profits arising under Major Lynn's management to have been $51,-12-08, an unprecedented amount. Senator Hay, of Madison, said that after carefully thinking over the question he could see no reason for postponement. Every one, he said, was familiar with the record of Major Lynn, and he thought that the Legislature might settle down to business.

The question was then put on the motion of Mr. Saunders teplot on the section of Mr. Saunders to postpone the section of Mr. Saunders to

The question was then put on the motion of Mr. Saunders to postpone the election of Superintendent of the Penitentiary, and the motion was defeated. OLD OFFICERS RENOMINATED.

OLD OFFICERS RENOMINATED.

The nomination of officers was then gone into, and Representative Bland, of Portsmouth, presented in a glowing speech the name of Hon. Joseph T. Lawless for Secretary of the Commonwealth, and upon motion of Senator Flood, he was nominated by acclamation and with great applause.

The next officer nominated was the Auditor of Public Accounts, and for this position the name of Colonel Morton Marye, the incumbent, was presented by Representative May, of Alexandria. The nomination was eloquently seconded by Mr. T. C. Pilcher, of Fauquier, and was carried by acclamation.

Mr. Bland, of King and Queen, put in nomination for the office of Second Auditor the name of Josiah Ryland, Jr., and upon motion of Mr. Hathaway, he was selected by acclamation.

For Treasurer the name of A. W. Harman was presented by Mr. C. P. Jones, and he was unanimously chosen by the cateurs.

For Railroad Commissioner, General James C. Hill was nominated by Senator George W. Morris, who was also chosen by acclamation.

The next officer nominated was the Register of the Land Offics, and the name of Sydney P. Epes was presented to the caucus by General George Hundley, of Amelia, who was the unanimous choice of the caucus, his nomination being eloquently seconded by Senator William Lovenstein.

MAJOR LYNN RENOMINATED. The Superintendent of the Pentientiary was the next officer selected. He was put in nomination by Speaker William Ryan, who said that his record was the best sulery which could be pronounced, and asked that he be unanimously chosen, which was done.

For Superintendent of Public Printing, Captain J. H. O'Eannon, the incumbent, was nominated by Senator Lovenstein and elected by acclamation.
The nomination of State officers having been concluded, Mr. E. W. Saunders, who had objected to the manner in which the caucus was called, presented the following resolution:

"Rev. Lewis W. Burton, D. D., of Louisville, was elected bishop of the new Episcopal diocese, comprising Central and Eastern Kentucky, here, this afternoon, on the eleventh ballot, he receiving thirteen votes from the clergy, and thurteen from the laity, he is pastor of St. Andrew's church, Louisville, Ky., is forty-two years old, and was formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Richmond, Va.

AT ST. JOHN'S NINE YEARS.
Dr. Burton was a native of Cleveland, O., and came from that city to take charge of St. John's church here, about eleven years ago. He was rector of St. John's about nine years, during which time he did a splendid work, and emeleven years ago. He was rector of St. John's about nine years, during which time he did a splendid work, and emeleved himself to the entire congregation. He was greatly beloved by his flock, and was one of the most courtly and popular divines in Richmond. It was with deep regret on the part of his congregation, that Dr. Burton left Richmond about two years and a haif ago, to take charge of St. Andrew's church, in Louisville.

ALMOST ELECTED BISHOP.
On January Il. 1834, Dr. Burton's name was presented to the Episcopal Special Council, for assistant bishop for the Eastern diocese of Virginia. On the first ballot he received fifteen votes, the nighest number of votes received by any of the nine men nominated, except Rev. Dr. John B. Newton, who received sixteen votes. Dr. burton was strongly supported for the position, and was finally defeated by Dr. Newton.

While residing in Richmond, Dr. Burton made many warm friends irrespective of religious creed, who will be much pleased to learn of the high honor bestowed upon him yesterday by Kentucky Episcopallans.

Rev. Dr. A. E. Dickinson, editor of the Keligious Herald, said: "I heartly endorse the policy of the Governor, for lynch-law is certainly an ugly blot upon the face of this Commonwealth, and should be obliterated by stringent measures. The sugerstion to make the county in which a lynching occurs pay for it, I consider eminently wise. You may say that I believe the Governor's policy, if followed out, would prove most effective." Judge T. Ashby Wickham, of the County Court of Henrico, when approached, declined to criticise or comment upon the views expressed by the Governor, but said that he considered that speedier trials would effect much towards the solution of the lynching question. 'Under the present system,' he said, 'the trial of a prisoner charged with a crime of such character as is calculated to incite lynching may be deferred entirely too long.'' Colonel John B. Cary, when seen, said that while he was not prepared to either endorse or disagree with the policy of his Excellency in this matter, he did consider it necessary that stringent measures should be enforced to prevent and punish the course of lynching.
